result of a 10% increase in the wire and cables segment to EGP 2.8 billion on higher volumes and average selling prices. However, turnkey registered disappointing results, declining by 15% to EGP 310 million, heavily impacted by the challenging conditions in Egypt. During the first nine months of 2013, the company's top-line added 7% y-o-y to EGP 11.2 billion as all major divisions achieved growth with the wire and cable segment contributing EGP 8.8 billion or 78% of total revenues. Meters revenues increased 19% to EGP 731 million, while revenues from

Issuing a REDUCE rating with a Target Price of EGP 27.13 per share after accounting for revised forecasts

El Sewedy reported a 6% y-o-y rise in Q3 revenues to EGP 3.5 billion as a transformers grew 15% to EGP 336 million following a strong performance in Egypt, Zambia, and Sudan. Conversely, electrical products revenues edged down by 3% to EGP 208 million, whereas Turnkey fell 9% to EGP 1.2 billion, pressured by the ongoing political instability in Egypt. We estimate 2013 revenues to rise by 5.6% to EGP 15.3 billion.

Earnings throughout 2013 supported by KSA and Algeria

El Sewedy Q3 gross profit increased by 5% y-o-y backed by robust income from cables, electrical products, and transformers segments, leading to an impressive 32% surge in the company's bottom-line. In addition, gross profit rallied by 23% y-o-y during the first nine months of 2013, sending the gross margin to 15% compared to 13% a year earlier, mostly buoyed by KSA and Algeria. Consequently, El Sewedy managed to record a 15% rise in earnings to EGP 190 million as all segments registered improvement in margins except for Turnkey. We expect 2013 earnings to increase to EGP 305 million, growing at a CAGR of 39% in the next three years.

Downgrading to REDUCE as rise in earnings doesn't justify surge in price

The potential growth in Algeria, Iraq and Saudi Arabia along with El Sewedy's focus on the African continent may offset the weak performance in Egypt as well as the freeze of operations in Libya, Syria, and Yemen. However, medium-term growth will be contingent on GCC project expansion in addition to post-conflict reconstruction efforts in the Arab world. Despite El Sewedy's improving fundamentals, we lower our rating to REDUCE as the company's stock price registered a striking rally in the past six months, surging by more than 77% as encouraging economic news and easing political tensions lifted investors' sentiment. With El Sewedy trading near its two-and-a-half year high, we expect a near-term pullback as this could be a considerable opportunity for profit taking. Moreover, we continue to perceive significant negative effect on Egyptian equities from the depreciation of the EGP and the drop of the Central Bank foreign reserves.
